GEORGE T. MARTIN, Prop., Dodge City, Kans.

FOURTH AT DODGE.

Afternoon Spent at Park With an Interesting Program.

The majority of Dodge City people spent the Fourth of July at home and in the afternoon a large crowd witnessed a program at the park, arranged by the Driving park association. There was no celebration, and the flutter of flags and the small boy with the firecracker were the only things that recalled the significance of the occasion.

At the park the program opened with an all around "home talent" base ball game. The Kinsley team was to be here but at the last moment sent word that the team was crippled. A "pick-up" nine played the regulars, but as none of them had been playing recently they were unable to interest the Dodge team. There were plenty of interesting plays made, but the errors were much more plentiful. The score was a great many to none.

The racing program in the main was interesting. The county trot or pace had three starters; "Sultan Y", P. H. Young's Vatican two-year-old, T. A. Dalton's "Bird", and Wilkinson's Philomath. It was won by the Young colt.

The 2:40 trot or pace was between Wilkinson's "Rodney," a Vatican five-year-old and "Judge Ewing" owned by John Smith of Kinsley. "Rodney" was the winner.

The "Free for All" was the drawing card of the program, but owing to an accident ended with the first heat. A short time ago Young's "Winnie Y" defeated Hanna's "Bay Ben" in three straight heats on the Kinsley track. The free for all yesterday was arranged to give "Bay Ben," owned at Kinsley, a chance for revenge. Kinsley people were willing to bet their two banks, the standpipe and the postoffice on "Bay Ben." The Dodge City folks were willing to wager the Harvey House, the U. S. Land office and Ben Hodges Corpus Christi land grant "Winnie Y" would win again. Excitement ran high when the start was made, and it was a pretty start. On the first turn "Winnie Y" cut a tendon but was game enough to finish the heat. She crowded "Bay Ben" at the last turn but dropped a little behind at the tape. When the heat was finished it was found that "Winnie Y" was lame and she was taken to the barn. The accident spoiled a mighty exciting race. "Bay Ben" was driven an exhibition heat and was given the race.

There were several running races which were not exciting enough to be injurious to health.

The pony race was a very pretty and interesting one; The riders were small boys about town and their eagerness to win seemed to be shared by the ponies they rode. The five or six ponies were off in a bunch, the amateur jockeys were all fine riders and the race was pretty evenly matched.

There was something approaching a thrill at different times to the relay race between Alexander and Dowdy. The two were off and around together, and the first changes were made in about the same time. Dowdy finally got a small advantage and kept it to the finish, winning the race. It was won on speed and not by quick changing.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

Republican Convention Will Be Held Here On August 15.

Members of the Republican County Central Committee met in Dodge City yesterday and set the date for the county convention for Wednesday, August 15.

At this convention a county ticket will be selected and delegates to the Judicial Convention will be elected.

The official call for the convention will probably be published next week.

Card of Thanks

We desire to extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks to our friends and neighbors who so kindly and faithfully helped us during the sickness and death of our darling baby girl. May God's richest blessings rest on each and every one of them. Mr. and Mrs. M. M. WAT.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Harper Oylar Killed at Pierceville Sunday Afternoon.

Harper Oylar, son of F. J. Oylar, who lived in Dodge City until last year, was struck by lightning on last Sunday afternoon, near Pierceville west of here on the Santa Fe.

The boy had been staying at Pierceville with his grandparents. Mr. Oylar was at his home in Iowa and Mrs. Oylar was in Wichita.

Harper, who was probably 12 or 13 years of age, was spending the afternoon with other young people on the river. A storm came up and he was struck by the lightning and killed instantly.

Mrs. Oylar was wired at once at Wichita, and sent the message on to Iowa.

Both of the parents came through Dodge City on No 5 Monday evening on their way to Pierceville. The funeral was held at Pierceville yesterday and the boy's body was buried in the cemetery at Garden City.

SEVERAL CANDIDATES

Will Be Out for District Judge, Should Judge Price Refuse Place.

At least three candidates in this district are out for the office of district judge. Their candidacy in each case seems to be conditional. They will be didates in case Judge Price refuses the place. When it was first known that Judge Madison would resign, attorneys and business men from every county urged Judge Price to allow his name to be used as a candidate. The movement was started before there were any candidates mentioned and it is altogether probable that the delegates to the convention will ask Judge Price to take the place, and it is believed that he will not refuse.

In case Judge Price should be unable to accept, the delegates to the convention will of course line up for candidates from their own counties or for their preference among candidates presented before the convention.

SPOKE AT TURON

Hutchinson News Pays a High Tribute to Judge Madison

Judge Madison spoke at the celebration at Turon in Reno county yesterday. The Hutchinson News has the following to say of the speech and speaker:

The people of Turon celebrated the Fourth of July in a truly patriotic manner yesterday. There was a patriotic program, pink lemonade and fire crackers, a dance and fireworks at night, and all the other unlisted things that the fertile Fourth of July mind can concoct and the facile hand execute. But the feature of features was the oration of Judge Madison.

E. H. Madison is a man of the people. He differs from the common run only in being gifted with a rare eloquence and an unusually bright mind. He feels himself to be of the same clay as his neighbors of this great big congressional district, so that his manners are naturally democratic. He has a handshake where genuineness takes the place of crushing force, which too often is the attribute of the handshake of the man seeking popular favor. He has a smile of pleasure in greeting people that is unaffected. He is, as has been stated, a man of the people.

His oratory is in keeping with his character. It exhibits the same delicious humor; while ornate, the flowers are strewn naturally and for the purpose of pointing a moral or clinching an argument and not for mere display. Even in his flights of eloquence he is easy and natural and he is a master of that most difficult of rhetorical arts, the handling of pathos. His oratory is from the mind and heart out, not merely from the surface. As in his character, genuineness is its most conspicuous trait.

The people of the Seventh district are fortunate in having such a man to vote for as a candidate for Congress. There is no question now about the Republicanism of the district and there is no question about Judge Madison's Republicanism. He is the kind of man the district needs to represent it in Congress and when he has won his spurs he will be one of the real orators of that body.

Col. Floyd Manary took a second-nine team to Cimarron on July 4. The boys had everything done to them that the laws of Kansas will permit, and were glad to get home alive. Cimarron won the game 15 to 5. Manary's pitching for the Dodge City team was the feature of the game. He hit the bat nearly every time he threw a ball.
